Mr. Griffiths said that all of Stegler. ler's statements were corroborated by Mrs. Stegler, the young Georgia woman at whose suggestion Stegler abandoned his alleged plan to go abroad. According to Mr. Griffiths Stegler was to have sailed for England to work for the German government in obtaining information as to the whereabouts of an English fleet of dreadnaughts supposed to be in St. George's channel. Stegler was to have gone on the steamer Franconia, according to the lawyer, and when he decided not to go a young German-American whom he knew by sight, but not by name, was assigned to the perilous task and salied o': the steamer with a bogus passport in his pocket.

The Franconia is due to arrive in Liverpool within a day or two.

Stegler's Negotiations. ler's statements were corroborated by ing to New York.

Stegler's Negotiations. Stegler was quoted by Mr. Griffiths with Boy-Ed had progressed to the point where he had discussed money that was to be paid to Mrs. Stegler while her husband was in England DUE TO VOTES OF WOMEN.

Capt. Boy-Ed's Denial. by the congressional committee of the National American Woman Suffrage Association, based on tabulated returns.

At the election recently held the woman voters gave the commission plan a majority of 270. The men voted "no," with a majority of 143. This resulted in the adoption of the charter by a majority of 127. The suffragists point to this as another example of the way in which "women are using the power of the ballot to attain, in a dignified and direct way, municipal progress."

Nevada women have been protesting by voice and petitions against the remachment of an easy divorce bill. If it becomes a law, it will be in defiance of the votes of women in that state, who have not yet had the opportunity to register their opinion by ballot.

B. & O. Railroad Company Answers Complaint of Discrimination Made to I. C. C.

Denial is made by the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company that the withdrawal of its two-day round-trip tickets on its Metropolitan branch west of Rockville while maintaining them east of that station is discriminatory. The denial was made this morning to the interstate commerce commission in re sponse to a complaint filed by the Metropolitan Branch Commuters' Associaion against the withdrawal of the wo-day tickets mentioned.

Replying to the first paragraph of the complaint, which sets forth that the Metropolitan Branch Commuters' Association is an association formed to represent the individual members and communities in matters pertaining to rates and services on the Metropolitan branch, and that the petition is brought on behalf of the commuters, the railroad says that "the defendant is not advised as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 1 of the petition, and therefore cannot either admit or deny the same, but asks for due proof thereof so far as relevant."
